Delicious, All Natural Liver Detoxifying Tea

Today, we are exposed to an increasing level of chemicals, pollutants, pesticides and other substances. The accumulation of these substances wreaks havoc on your organs, especially your liver, an organ you depend on to filter these unhealthy substances out of the bloodstream, metabolize carbohydrates, store fats for fuel, and many other key functions. Waiora's Herbal Detox Tea is specifically blended to fortify your system against these substances, support a healthy liver and digestive system, neutralize free radical damage and much more.*

For centuries, Asian cultures have been using teas and all natural herbs to help the body eliminate toxins. Specific herbs like Milk Thistle, Dandelion Root and Burdock Root have been used to help protect the liver, promote healthy digestion and soothe the intestinal tract. Powerful ingredients like these make up this delicious, health-rejuvenating tea.*

An Expert's Advice

"A healthy liver is considered a cornerstone for total body health. Stress, pollutants, poor diet and unhealthy habits challenge the health of your liver. Waiora's Herbal Detox Tea can help restore the health of your liver and more." —Rik D., Biochemist, Fla.
